

CSO and Media Surveyor Internship

Objectives

The objective of the internship is to assist and support clean energy hub work in developing baseline and survey to better understand the current CSO and Media capacity in supporting the just energy transition narrative.

- Baseline for mapping CSO and media knowledge about climate crisis, efficiency energy, energy transition, just energy transition and specific renewable energy technologies know-how

Scope of works

With the support of the Clean Energy Hub team, the intern will be tasked with performing the following tasks:

- Analyze the media and journalists capacity on energy related issue based on the quality of media's articles
- Collect and analyze the CSO capacity on energy related issue based on the quality of media's articles
- Plan, prepare, execute, and analyze the result of the CSO's and media survey

Required qualifications and competences

- An undergraduate student majoring in engineering, energy system or relevant studies – preferably in their final year and freshgrade can apply;
- Should have basic knowledge in renewable energy to supervise the publication of CSO and media;
- Should have analytical skills;
- Having experience or interest in renewable energy topic is advantageous;
- Having experience on survey is advantageous;
- Having knowledge in media or CSO is advantageous;
- Owning a personal laptop and the necessary software tools is a requirement for this position.

Duty Station: Jakarta (the intern required to work from the office 3 days per week)

Working Hours: 5 working days per week, 8 (eight) working hours per day

Expected Joining Date: as soon as possible

Duration of Internship: 3 to 6 months

Remuneration: The intern will follow IESR regulations and receive a stipend intended to cover meals and transport allowances.

Interested candidates shall submit a comprehensive resume and a motivation letter to irwan@iesr.or.id and falah@iesr.or.id before 29 February, 2024.

To apply please complete the Job Application form here and send your application letter, resume/CV, and portfolio (if any)

Please put “CSO and Media Surveyor – Internship” as the subject of your email.

Open to two interns

Only short-listed candidates will be notified.